

Allen County Forensic Diversion Program

A Project of Allen County
Community Corrections
July 22, 2004

Presented to the Allen County Community Corrections' Advisory Board

Forensic Diversion Program

Indiana Code 11-12-3.5

GENERAL INSTRUCTION

- Eligibility
 - Adult with Mental Illness or Addictive Disorder
 - Charged with a crime that is not a violent offense
- Program Components
- Entry Into Program
- Participation
- Pre-Conviction
- Post-Conviction

Forensic Diversion Program

Indiana Code 11-12-3.5

- PRE-CONVICTION PROGRAM
- Eligibility
- Advisement of Rights
- Procedure for Placement
- Completion of Participation in Program

Forensic Diversion Program

Indiana Code 11-12-3.5

- POST-CONVICTION PROGRAM
- Eligibility
- Advisement of Rights
- Procedure for Placement
 - Suspendible sentence
 - Nonsuspendible sentence
- Completion of Participation in Program
 - Suspendible sentence
 - Nonsuspendible sentence

Forensic Diversion Program

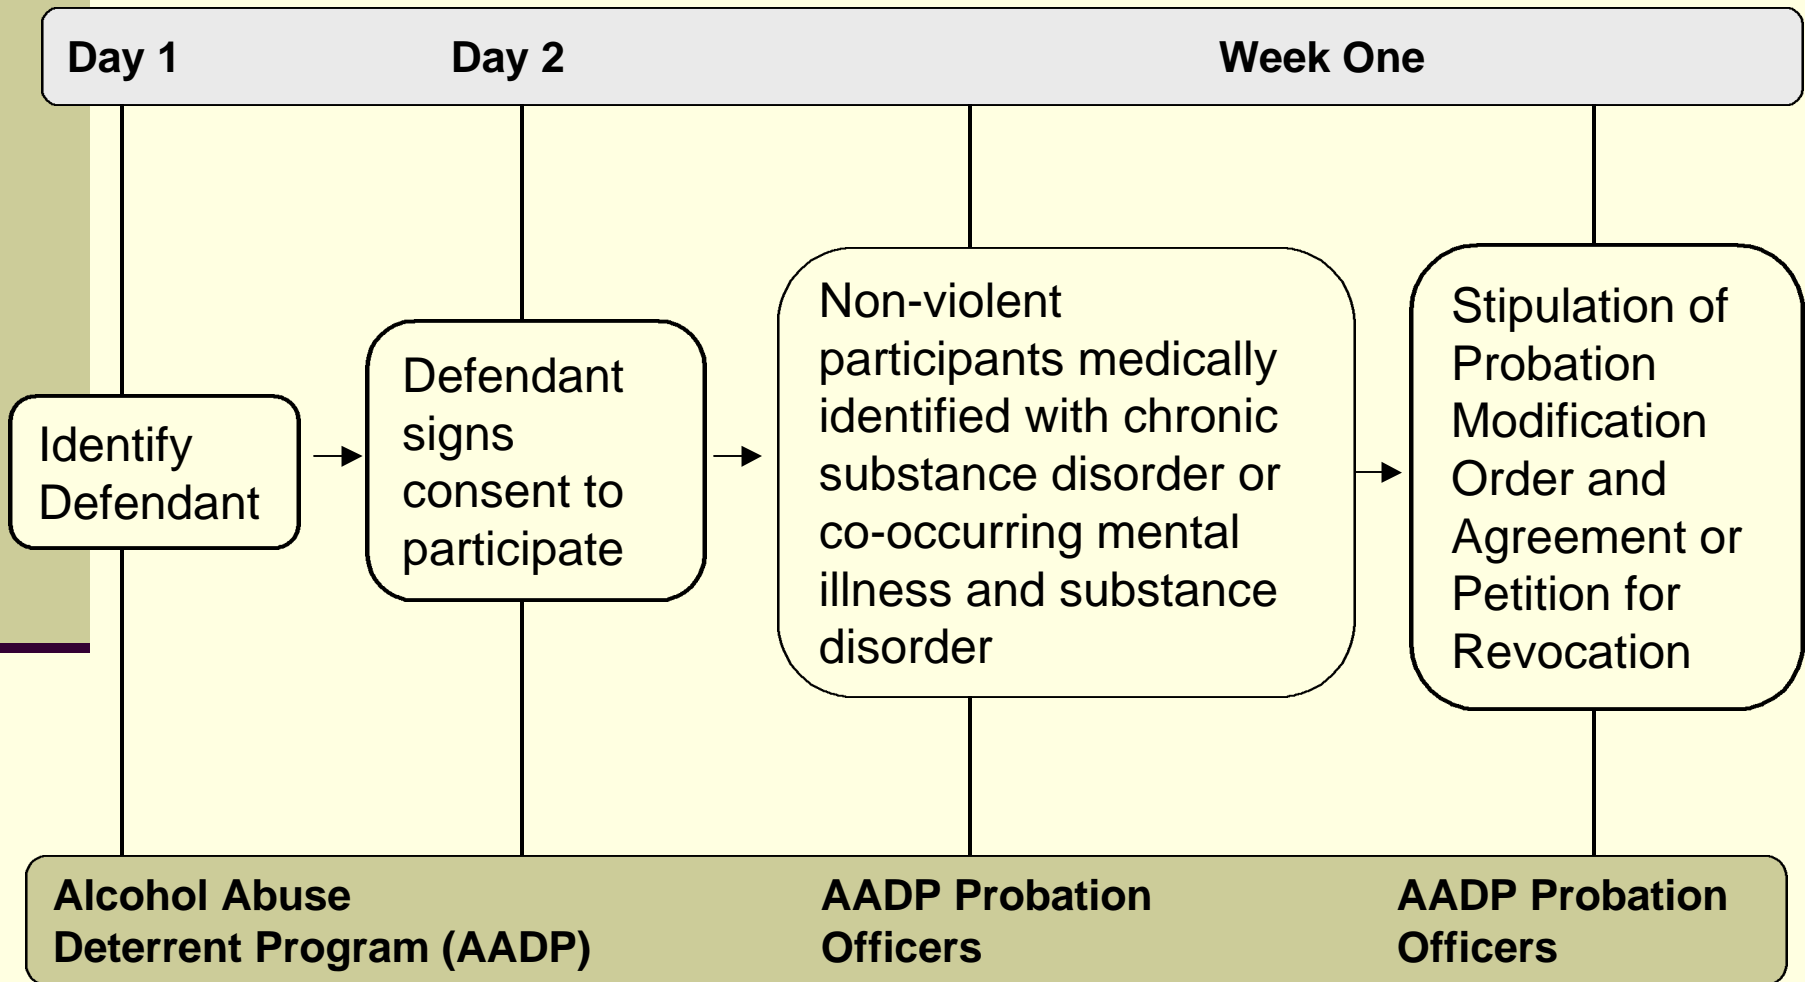

Allen County, Indiana

- Pilot Project Specific Elements
 - Multi-Disciplinary Task Force*
 - Specific Eligibility Criteria
 - Forensic Diversion Program
 - Motivational Intervention Program
 - Universal Health Transfer Summary
 - Forensic Diversion Transition Team
 - Specialized Training for Personnel

* Chair: Judge Thomas Felts, Allen Circuit Court, Community Mental Health Professionals, Criminal Justice Stakeholders, Mental health Advocates, Prosecuting Attorney's Office, Hospital Administration, Social Service Organizations, and Community Advocates, Police (Crisis Intervention Team)

Forensic Diversion Program

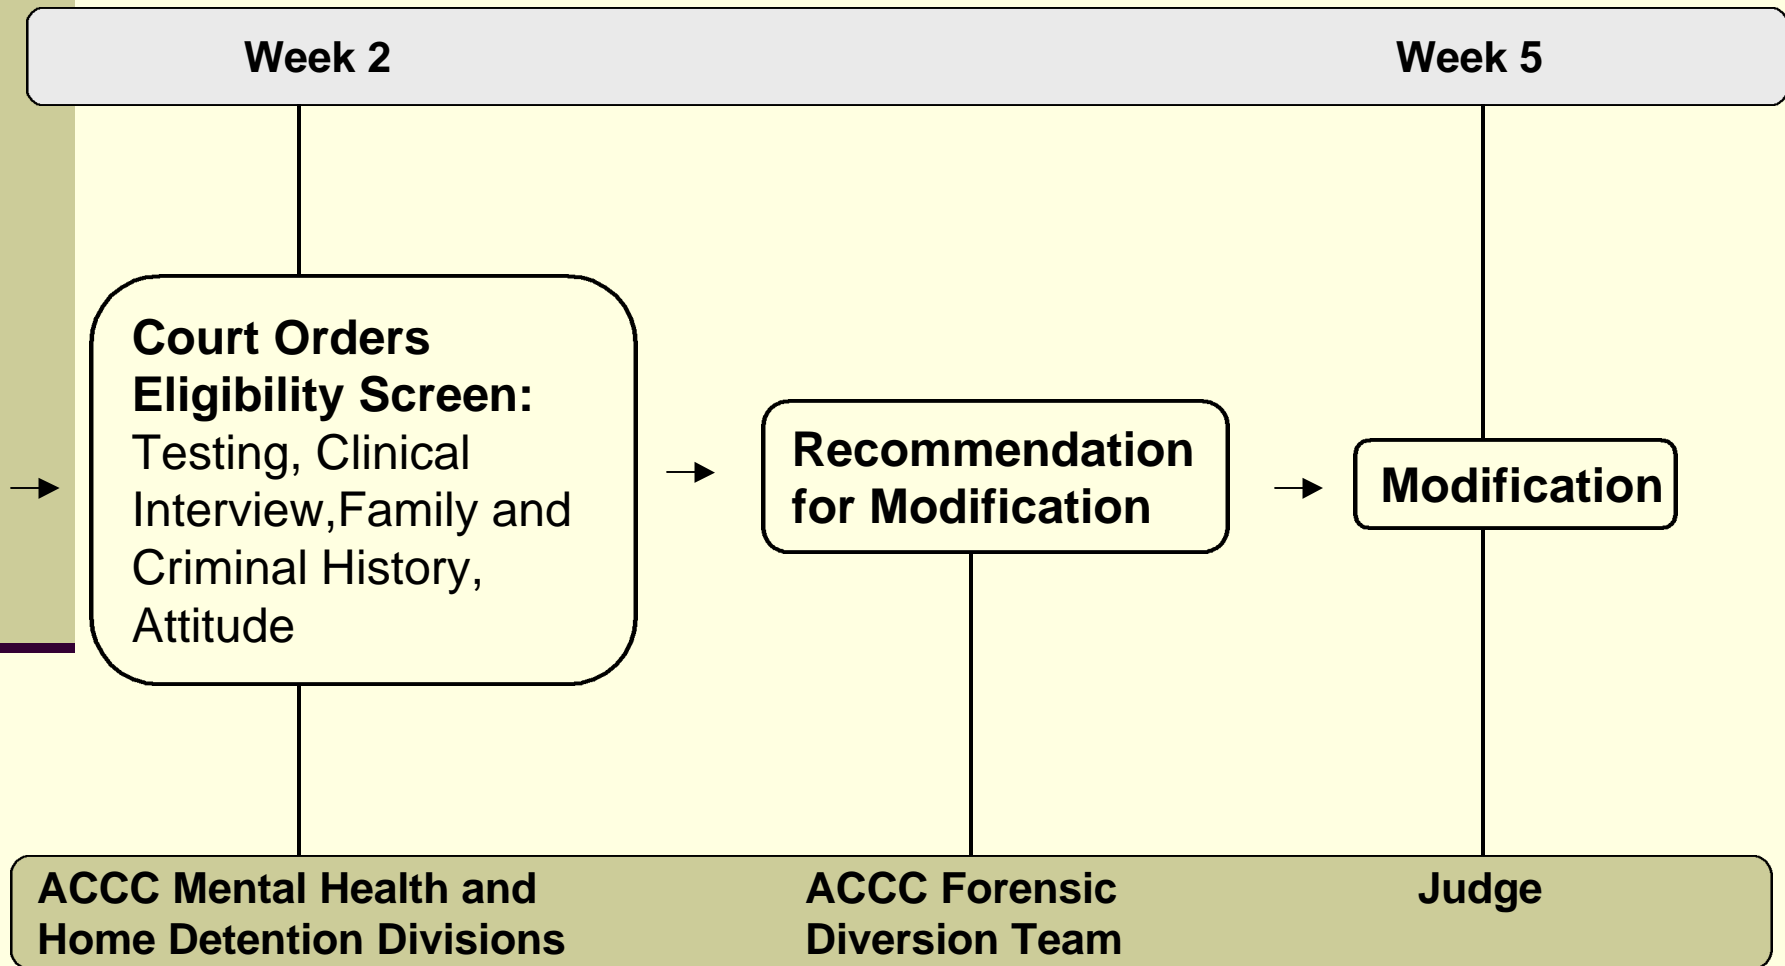

Allen County, Indiana

Allen County Community Corrections

Forensic Diversion Program

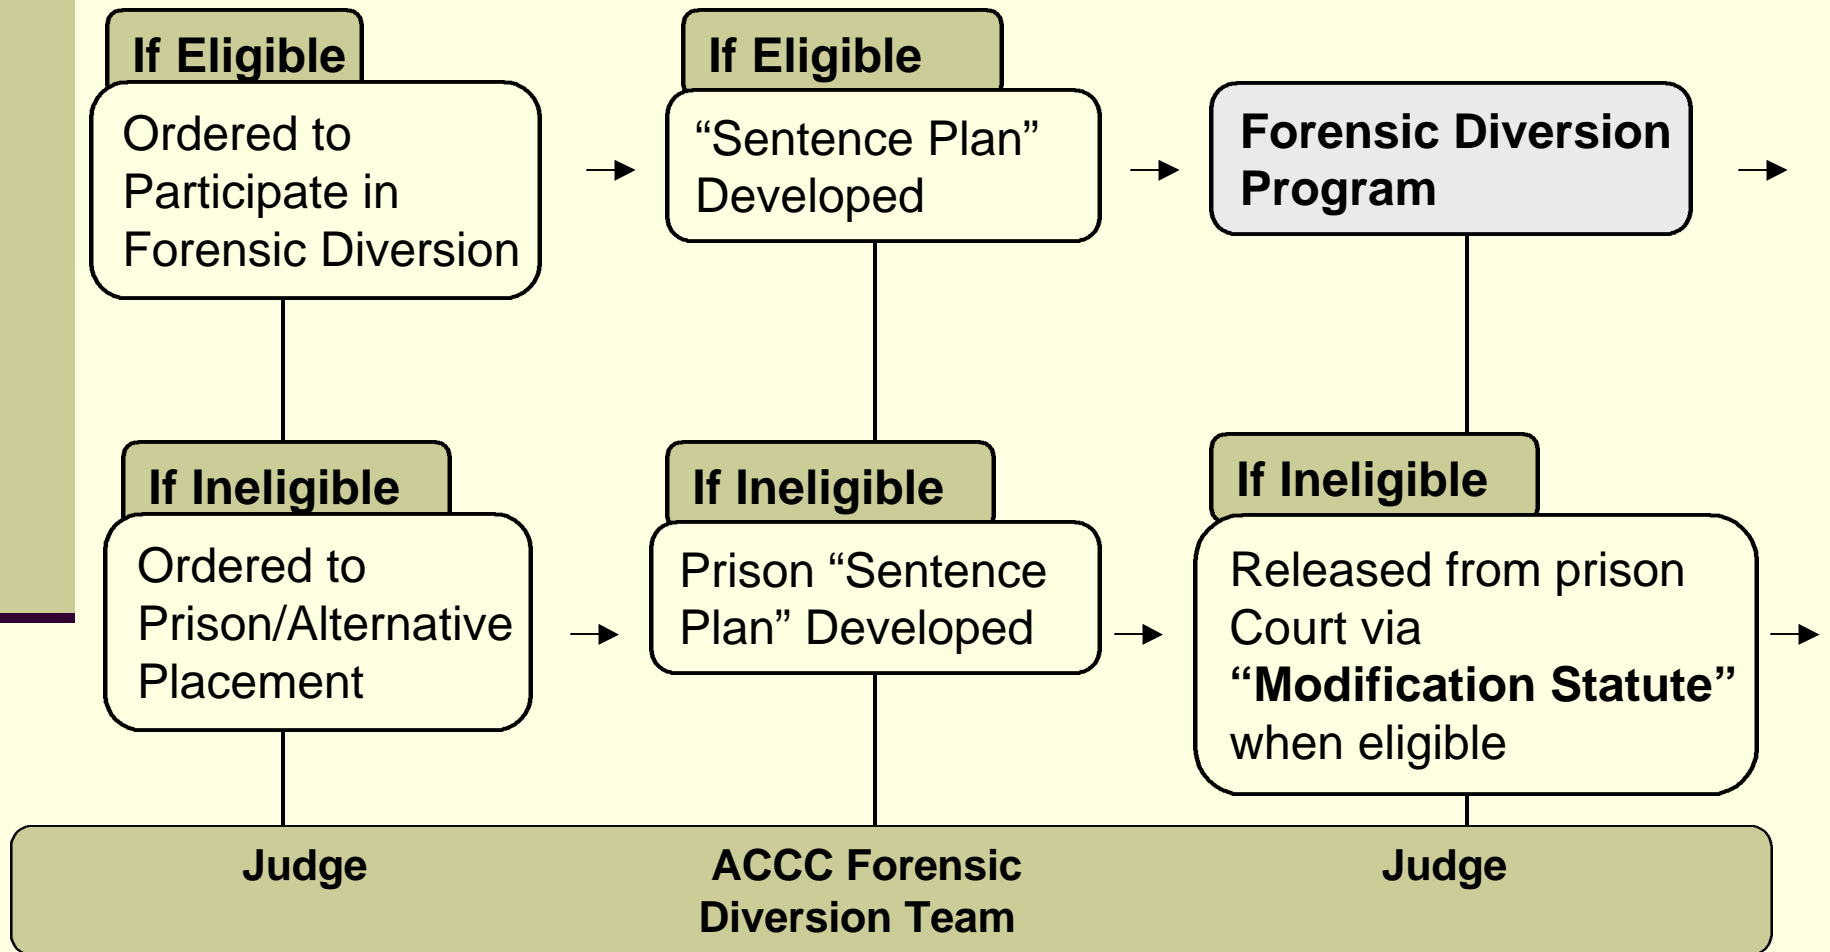

Allen County, Indiana

Allen County Community Corrections

Forensic Diversion Program

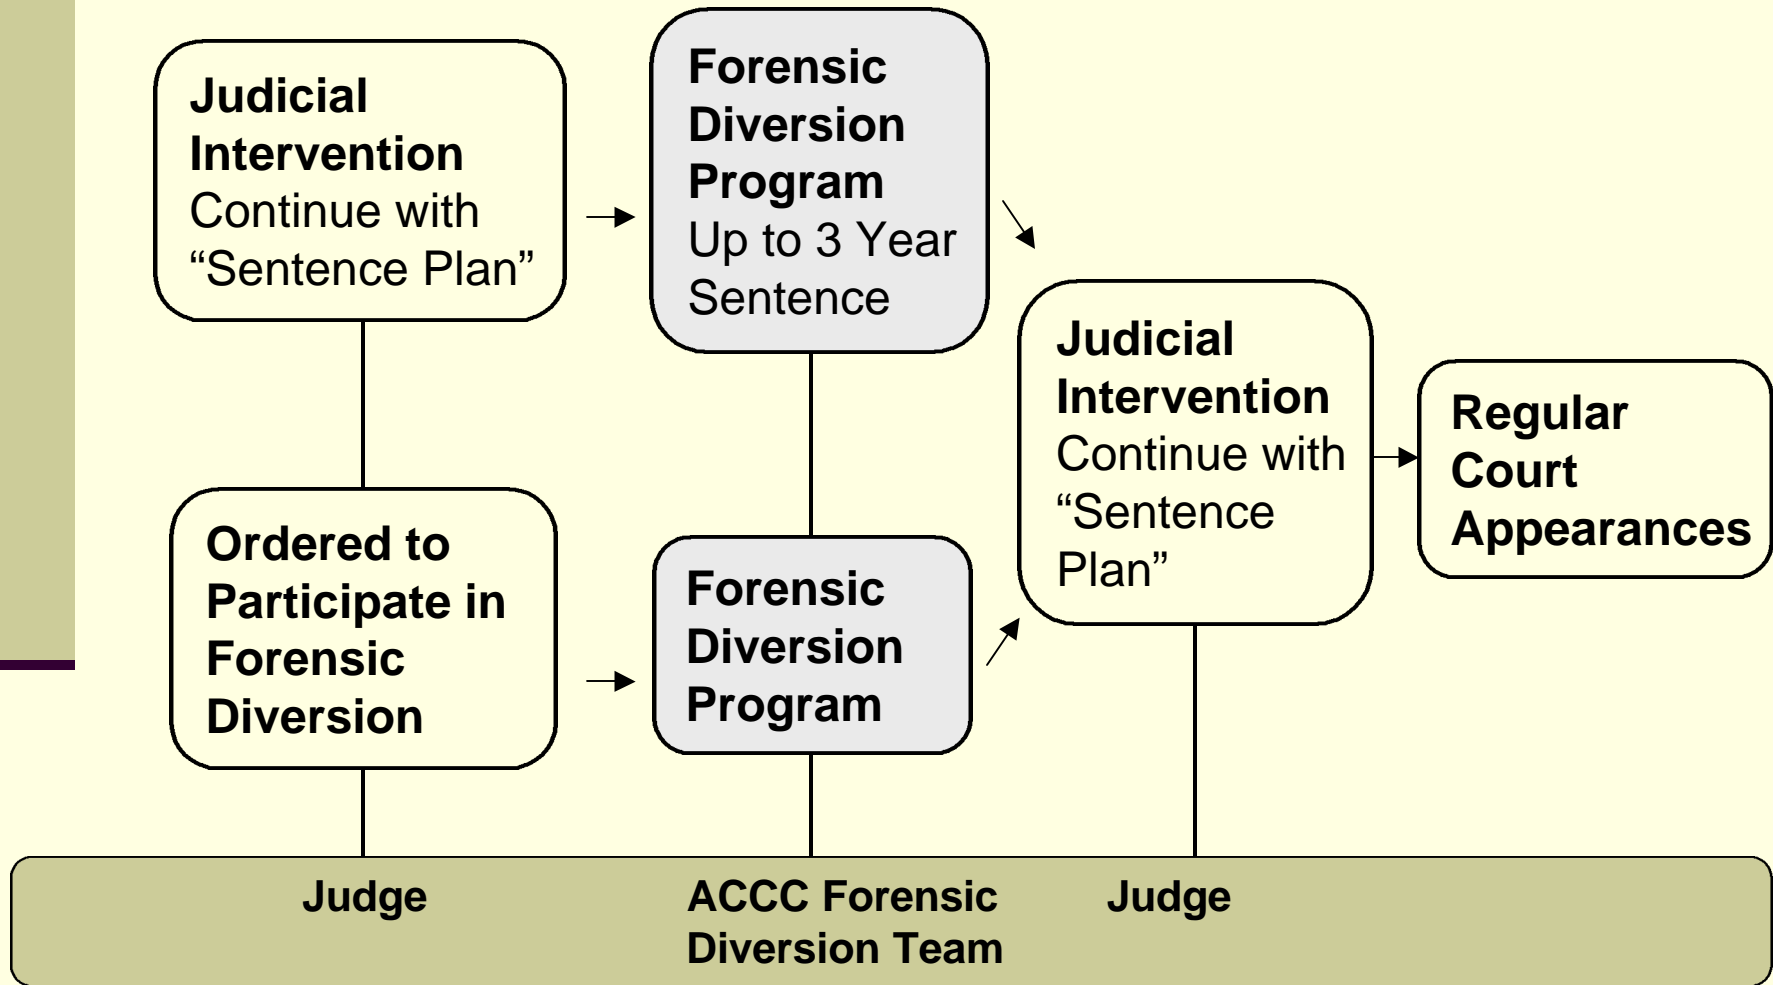

Allen County, Indiana

Allen County Community Corrections

Forensic Diversion Program

Allen County, Indiana

Allen County Community Corrections